Well, folks, It's been quite a time we've been living through! I hope this note finds you in good health! Every time I've talked to a chapter member or clock class member, they've expressed how much they've missed our clock world. So the other officers, directors and I have had several zoom meetings to discuss and plan getting together. I've contacted the church and submitted a State of New York COVID plan to them so we can have a COVID-safe meeting.

So we are going to have a meeting on December 5 at the Freedom Plains Presbyterian Church observing established COVID rules:

- Please bring your own face mask, drinks and food, and gloves if you wish to wear gloves
- We will take your temperature and ask you several COVID questions at check in and ask you to sign an NAWCC "COVID waiver". We will also have hand sanitizer on hand
- Please wear your face mask and maintain a social distance of six feet where possible

Now for the fun part: We will start off with our traditional mart. Then we will have our annual meeting, including voting for officers and directors (please let me know in advance if you would like to run for an office!). Then, I will do a COVID-simple presentation of my electro-magnetic-mechanical (whew!) Eureka clock that I bought from Ian Wetherly (yes, I love it!).

Since you will be bringing your own food, we will charge only $4 for the meeting. Additionally, since we've been pretty inactive this year, we won't charge annual dues for next year … so you are all paid up! Please register in advance of the meeting so we can make final COVID-safe plans for the meeting. Also, the meeting room has a COVID occupancy rate of 25.

See you on December 5 … Jim
