June 21st, 2009 GREATER PHILADELPHIA EXPO CENTER AT OAKS 100 Station Ave., Oaks, PA 19456 (484) 754-3976

ATTENTION!

We have received several complaints that some of our Chapter One members have let their National Dues lapse. According to our By-Laws you have to be a paid-up member of the National Organization to participate in ANY Chapter One function, including Marts. Therefore, the Council has stated that ALL MEMBERS MUST SHOW THEIR CURRENT, PAID-UP, NAWCC MEMBERSHIP CARD AT THE DOOR.

THE GUEST SPEAKER WILL BE: RON HOPPE. His topic will be "The History of Time and the Calendar."

THE WORKSHOP: DAVE GORRELL — The topic will be "Pivot Polishing."

Four methods of pivot polishing will be demonstrated; this will be a "hands-on activity." Bring at least three clock wheels that have bad pivots—you will be encouraged to use all four of the polishing methods. Spectators are discouraged and will be harangued..

The New Venue: We hope that every one had a pleasant Meeting on the 19th. We know that there were some minor glitches but that was to be expected. We hope that none of them caused you any serious inconvenience. We met with the caterers and made arrangements to have the Luncheon served promptly at noon in the future. They also promised to have 2 separate serving lines in order to speed up the process.

The new 8 foot Mart tables are more expensive, but we also know that most members prefer them to the 6' tables. We will try to keep the price for tables the same as long as we can; however, it probably will go up in the near future.

The Expo Center is aware that many of your GPS devices are having difficulty locating the facility. The problem stems from the fact that Station Ave is a private road and GPS doesn't recognize it. They are working on it. You can also try typing in Upper Providence Township rather than Oaks, Pa. Or use the Zip Code 19456.
