President's Column

We had 4 presenters for the Ugly Clock Contest— Eric Kramer, George Hudson, Don Buck, and Ed Butler. The winner was George Hudson with his special clock. It was a square clock, with a quartz movement, and had a chia grass brick on top. George offered to give away the chia grass brick, but not the quartz movement. There were no takers. The Show and Tell part of the meeting of January 20th. featured Frank Goad, Bob Butler, Bill Bonta, George Hudson and Frank Blahut. Our thanks go out to all the participants, who made this meeting a huge success.

Our next event was at the Antique Show held in the Kenilworth Mall in Towson on February 8th and 9th. We were provided with a free table to set up a display to promote the NAWCC and Chapter 11. Helping me were George Hudson (with a wood movement), Bob Butler, Ed Butler, Jim Manning, Tom Mostyn, Frank Blahut, and Dave Gorrell. Thank You, Thank You, Thank You, for all who participated during the 2 day event.

The Woodsboro Meeting was on April 6, 2013. We had 45 tables loaded with items, 75 paid attendees and 17 guests. Sales were up, but the highlight of the meeting was our speaker—

David Lindow with an actual Rose Engine that he makes and sells. I can't tell you how the engine works, but the engravings it makes on watch cases is phenomenal.

That brings us up to our June 9th meeting. We are happy to have Bob Rothen for our guest speaker. Bob will talk about glass in general and how to make both straight and curved cuts. Bob makes it look easy, and hopefully will change your queasiness to easiness.

Respectfully Submitted,

Don Buck, President
