Meeting - June 11, 2017	The meeting was attended by 26 members and 1 guest. The 50/50 drawing, handled by Jerry VanLanker, was won by Jim Williams; the proceeds to be used for chapter education.
Program:	Member Don Hellstern, author of " The Culver Brothers: The Unfortunate Truth ," a factual retelling of the lives of the founders of the "Fashion" calendar clock of the Southern Calendar Clock Company of St. Louis, delivered a fascinating presentation. Several members bought a copy of his book after the meeting.
Show and Tell:	Lisa Shepard passed around an engraved wristwatch belonging to her grandmother that she had recently received and had restored. Digger Odell presented an Ansonia clock purchased at our recent regional. He is attempting to determine if the clock's statue is original. Larry Boucher showed a "cute" little New Haven clock with cherubs and a reverse painting advertisement. Bill Maune brought a Westclox alarm clock and an ogee clock acquired in a lot of nondescript clocks that turned out to be an 1841 Chauncey Jerome!
