NEW OFFICERS:

NEW MEMBERS: We welcomed new members Tom Decker and Jim Prochaska.

February MEETING: 37 members and 3 guests attended the February 11 meeting. Harold Engelhaupt won the 50/50 drawing, and the proceeds are used for Chapter education.

{month} PROGRAM:

SHOW AND TELL: Tim Busenbark brought a beautifully finished parlor clock that he called a "Frankenstein" because of the parts and pieces that came from various sources.

Bill Maune brought an unusual ogee clock. It had an eight-day movement, additional wood ornamentation around the front of the case, and was taller than a "normal" ogee. Researching the label dated the clock as pre-1840.

CHAPTER CONTEST: The talents of the chapters' members were on full view at the annual restoration contest. Winners in the wood cased category: Greg Arey (1st place), Tim Busenbark (2nd place), and Tom Decker (3rd place). The winner in the non-wood category was Digger Odell (1st and 2nd place).

IN THE NEWS: Don Hellstern has expended considerable efforts in the creation of a website that serves the interests of fans of the Southern "Fashion" calendar clock. The website address is: <https://fashionclockcollectorsassoc.com>.
