NAWCC Chapter 52 - Los Padres

Ball Brotherhood AD

I have found a November 1902 Railroad trainmen's Journal and the Ball Ad and the two premium offers are very interesting.

Note the availability of the Lady queen in solid Gold!

Another Premium offer from the same Journal

When addressing our advertisers mention this Journal.

Something For You For Christmas.

To enable our members and their lady friends to present some one with a handsome Christmas or New Years gift, the Journal makes a special offer for the months of November and December that we know will open the way to the presentation of a handsome present without cost to the giver.

During November and December the Journal will offer the B. R. T. Queen in solid and filled case for subscriptions received. This offer applies only to subscriptions received during the two months and will close December 31st, 1902. Subscriptions received prior to November 1st will not be allowed to apply on this offer, but subscriptions received during the two months can apply to the regular prize offer if the senders so desire. There is no limit to the number of watches, so everybody get one.

DESCRIPTION.

The B. of R. T. Queen Watch is a nickel 17 jeweled movement, adjusted like our Official B. of R. T. Standard watches.

Small in size, neat in appearance, correct in time—just what you want for your mother, wife, daughter or sweetheart. A good, durable, trustworthy timepiece—made for time as well as beauty.

Manufactured by

THE WEBB C. BALL WATCH CO.,

Cleveland, O.

In extra quality 14 K. gold filled (25 year guarantee) Hunting or Open Face, engine turned or engraved case, for thirty (30) subscribers. Same in Solid Gold, 50 subscribers.

Now let everybody get in on this for the conditions give everyone an equal start. Remember that subscriptions received during November and December only will be applied to this offer.

The Webb C. Ball Company will be pleased to mail catalog and prices of their Official B. of R. T., Standard Watches, also Pins and Charms. Address Cleveland, O.
