The July Meeting is Canceled Next Meeting: August 10

President's Message

It is really heating up, and many people are going on vacations. Our June 8th meeting was sparsely attended. Those who did attend voted to cancel our July 13th meeting, so make a note of that in your calendar so you won't be disappointed if you show up at the community center and no one is there.

Our next meeting at the community center will be on August 10th, with a pictorial review of NAWCC's Annual Convention by chapter members who attended the meeting.

Please consider anything you can do to help with the functions we need to man for our 2025 March Sunshine Regional. There are still lots of slots open for helpers of all kinds.

Stay cool, and stay hydrated! I look forward to seeing you on August 10th.

President #112

The Woman Who Sold Time, and the Man Who Tried to Stop Her

David Vogt supplied the following link to an interesting BBC article about Ruth Belville. For more than a century, a member of the Belville family would visit the Royal Observatory at Greenwich at least three times a week. He or she would set the time on a watch and head across London to sell that information to their clients.....

Spoofed Email Warning

Spoofing is a deceptive technique where a person manipulates an email address and sender's name to make it appear as if the email came from a trusted source, often someone you know. Once a bad actor has fooled you regarding the origin of an email, they may phish for confidential identity or credit card information or try to trick you into downloading malicious malware. Some will even go as far as to name-drop family members and state that they're in an emergency in order to manipulate you.

One of our members recently received an email purportedly from a chapter officer. The recipient was suspicious and noticed that the officer's email address (usually viewable by hovering your cursor over the sender's name) had changed.

This is not the first time a bad actor has tried to impersonate a chapter officer.

If you receive a suspicious email from a fellow chapter or NAWCC member, please forward the email to NAWCC's webmaster, Alex Simpkins. His email is asimpkins@NAWCC.org.
