President's Message

We had a most excellent meeting in August! One of our best for the silent auction! Quite a few people went home with new treasures. I know I did. Let's try to keep up the action, so bring in your stuff for the mart, silent auction, and show-n-tell in September.

We need to seriously discuss plans for the March '25 Sunshine Regional and we need a theme for the display. Think it over and bring your ideas to the meeting to share in the group discussion. All voted at the last meeting to have the Gala Christmas Lunch at the casino buffet again. Everybody that attended had a grand time. There will be a gift exchange as usual, limited to $20-25. Inflation has even struck the gift exchange!

Our meeting will begin with the usual mini-mart, silent auction, and a short business meeting commencing at 10. Following the business meeting will be a show-n-tell session and an educational presentation by Jim Powell.

Please bring your treasures to show us! Nothing is too small or too simple. We'll go for lunch at Phil's afterward, as usual.

See you there!

Jim Powell
President
NAWCC #112

Educational Presentation

"From Junkers to Jewels"

By Jim Powell

Jim will be highlighting his simple beginnings as a kid in his Dad's basement shop to his modern-day tool collection of hand and power tools, showing several of the "junker" clocks he has restored over the years. It will be a PowerPoint presentation with many details and photos.
