President Wayne Herrmann described the tall case clock we purchased for a Chapter Restoration Project to be entered in the 2011 National Convention.

Jerry Thornsberry introduced Bill Dugan, our member. Bill had picked up a large wooden escape wheel and verge to demonstrate adjustments to make a clock run its best and explained Pendulum Theory, angles, pitch, etc.

Jerry also announced a Lazer Cutting and carving demonstration, November 4th.

Then Jerry Thornsberry and John Martin introduced our member Don Allen as a new recipient of the NAWCC Fellow Award, and Wayne Herrmann pinned Don with the special Fellow pin. Don's wife, Ramona, displayed a special collage of his activities with Chapter members and friends.

Bill Maune, Restoration Committee Chairman, advised us that 5 or 6 members had projects coming.

Doug Haeussler had set up a web site for our Chapter —

The auction of the restored Birge and Mallory triple decker clock donated by Ednabelle Menditto, in memory of her husband, resulted with Harry Firth purchasing this beautifully restored timepiece for $550.00.

Bill Dugan 2011 NAWCC Convention Chairman indicated he needed people to help with table covering and directing traffic at the Convention.

Ednabelle Menditto talked about stewardship for the Chapter.

Wayne Andrews had a drawing for the book "Celebrity Watches".

Show and Tell: Don Allen showed a Jack Brown movement and Bob Hill an Adkins Rosewood, while Joe Loar showed a beautiful cloisiene, and Jim Kuhn showed a dog clock.

The meeting adjourned at 3:15 PM.
