Reports

1. Treasury – funds currently $694.36

Discussions

1. Paul Jancarich shared Chapter #83 meeting-notes published 10/1990 NAWCC Bulletin, including tie-in to current members.
2. President reported need to hold off on donations till replenish funds.
3. Discussed distribution of older copies of Bulletin, stamped with notices of our chapter meetings.
4. Brief discussion finalizing Informational at the Merrillville Historical Society on Saturday May 18th, 2019, open to the public from 10AM to 2PM. Thanks to John Wagner for donating a time & strike wall-clock to the Merrillville Historical Society at the Informational.
5. Bob Miller had chapter cards made per President’s request. Bob also emailed local chapters to announce our July 6 Mart.
6. Harry will get together with Raul to send out Mart-flyers and table-applications to previous-Mart vendors.

Show & Tell [F]

Paul Kwitkowski presented a Steinhausen Multi-Function wrist-watch. Automatic with exhibition-back, screwdown crown, hack-set. Quick-set for the calendar.

Paul Jancorich shared a clock which he purchased from one of our chapter's founding members in the early 1970's: Earl Furnace, a local clock-maker. Paul's first met Earl when Paul took his Dad's expensive clock for repair. This in-fact is how Paul came into the clock-field and into joining the newly-founded Chapter#83. Earl ended up moving to Mississippi to work for Herschede where his son also worked for a time.

Motion to adjourn, seconded and approved.

After Meeting

Norm Krueger shared his timing machine with our class, showing the setup and demonstration of different aspects for both analog and quartz watches.
