Invites You to Attend Our “Picnic in the Park”
=== Saturday, July 13, 2019 ===
James Baird State Park, Shelter #1
Baird Park Road, Pleasant Valley, NY 12569

Hey ... it’s time for us to get together and have a picnic! Sunny (hopefully!), warm weather ... seeing friends from other chapters ... expanded mart ... great food ... and the interesting clocks and stories at show and tell. Is this the definition of a great time, or what!

As usual, we will be inviting our friends in from neighboring chapters. This is a great opportunity to make some new friends, and to re-connect with some old ones. This meeting always offers a lively mart, so bring in your horological items for sale or trade. Table space is free, but pre-registration is requested.

The program is the traditional “show and tell,” where all are invited to share your horological curiosities with your colleagues. Please consider bringing an item and a story to share.

Our usual continental breakfast will be served, as well as a lunchtime feast of hero sandwiches, salads, and cold beverages. This promises to be a very enjoyable day, so please plan to attend, register early, and bring a friend or two.

Please note: although we are scheduled for shelter 1, that could change, so be sure to check the sign at the entrance to the shelter. ALSO, they have been doing construction work at the Baird exit from the Taconic Parkway. That should be completed by July. If you are not able to enter the park from the Taconic, get off at Route 55 and go west, then north on Freedom Rd. (47), and go in the back entrance to the park. (See map below.)

I’m looking forward to seeing you there! - Jim
