We're baaaacckkkk! Yeah, the directors and I got together and decided it's time to get together again. We figured by early May most of us will have received our vaccinations. But as in December, we will have a COVID-safe meeting per State of New York guidelines.

So we are going to have a meeting on May 8 at the Freedom Plains Presbyterian Church observing established COVID rules:

- Please bring your own face mask, drinks and food, and gloves if you wish to wear gloves
- We will take your temperature and ask you several COVID questions at check in and ask you to sign an NAWCC "COVID waiver". We will also have hand sanitizer on hand
- Please wear your face mask and maintain a social distance of six feet where possible

Now for the fun part: We will start off with our traditional mart. I know I will have things to sell and I'm sure there will be pent-up desire to buy from our members. Then we will do a show-'n-tell. We have some interesting things lined up. Let me know if you have something you would like to show.

Like in December, since you will be bringing your own food, we will charge only $4 for the meeting. Additionally, as I explained in our last meeting notice, since we've been pretty inactive this past year, we aren't charging annual dues for this year ... so you are all paid up! Please register in advance of the meeting so we can make final COVID-safe plans for the meeting. Also, as of the sending of this notice, the meeting room has a COVID occupancy rate of 25.

See you on May 8! ... Jim Schedule: Table Set-Up 7:30; Mart 8:30; Show-'n-tell 10:00; Meeting Ends 11:00 (or so...)

Future Meeting Dates: We're hoping to have our July picnic ... National convention is July 15 – 18 this year which is when we would normally have our picnic ... so we are trying to work around that.
