 Freedom Plains Presbyterian Church
 1168 Route 55. Lagrangeville, NY 12540

Many thanks to John Wilman and Ken Hurst for sharing their experiences with us at our April meeting. I have always been amazed by the talent and generosity of our members. I invariably learn a great deal from these presentations.

The theme for our June 10th meeting will be Storage Wars! As we mentioned at the April meeting, our local Habitat for Humanity earned over $3,000.00 from the donated clocks that were sitting in storage. Over a third of that money came from our chapter members. Thank you for supporting this very worthy cause! At our June meeting, you are invited to tell us about the "diamond-in-rough" you found at the storage unit. For example, after everyone had picked over the unit, Jim Holmgren uncovered two ugly ducklings and turned them into beautiful swans. He will show them to us in June. So, bring yours in too!

Finally, don't forget about the 80th Anniversary of the NAWCC National Convention! It will be held on July 13th - 16th in Lancaster, PA. This is near the NAWCC Headquarters in Columbia, PA, where there will be a number of coordinated activities. This could be a very busy summer!

I hope to see you all on the 10th! Bring a friend. Or two.

--- Chuck
